Meeting Announcements:

Date: April 3,2001

Time: 6:00 p.m. - ?

Place: Valen Frye's workshop

Directions: Take exit 12 off 83 and go east on Susquehanna Trail, take first road on right-Conewago Creek Rd.

go approx. 1 mile to red barn on your right-535 Conewago Creek Rd.

This month's meeting will be on chucking techniques and will be held at Valen Frye's workshop. There will be a wood auction this month so dig out some neat pieces of wood to auction off. Don't forget your pieces for the show and tell table-it has really been wonderful with lots of members participating. Let's keep up the good turning and woodworking guys!

NOTES FROM THE PRESIDENT.

Our first raffle for a Carbide saw blade donated by Woodworkers Warehouse netted $27.00. We have another blade to auction followed by a raffle of one days instruction with Bob Rosand at his shop.

All Day Instruction and Demo October 21,22,23. We have invited Tom Fortenbery, an AAW member and instructor /demonstrator for the above dates. On the 21st (Sunday) he will do a demonstration in the evening. On the 22nd and 23rd he will conduct all day hands on instruction for a maximum of four members each day. Tom's fee will be $200 per day plus expenses so we will have a $5 charge for the Sunday demo and $50 per day for those attending the all day sessions. All sessions will be in my shop and I will host Tom and his wife to keep expenses at a minimum. Sign up will be on a first come basis. For those who expressed an interest at the last meeting please contact me to get on the list.

CAPITOL AREA WOODTURNERS SYMPOSIA

We have been contacted by the president of the Capital turners to participate in a combined effort Capital, Chesapeake, Richmond and SSPT Oct 11,12,13 symposia. They will be looking for demonstrators, helpers and of course attendees. Dean Swagert is member of the Capitol group and will have more information after he attends their next meeting .
